Upon graduating from the University of Virginia with B.S. in Finance in 1998, Clay joined Bank of America as a commercial real estate lender. After a stint of eighteen months with the bank, he decided to enter the family business. He has been with the company over eleven (11) years and has been an integral part in managing all facets on the commercial side of company. Clay holds an OSHA 30 certification and is responsible for the company’s safety and insurance programs.

He finds time to volunteer as a co-chairman for the Norfolk Chapter of Ducks Unlimited as well as serving on the board for the Virginia Zoo. Clay also enjoys coaching youth basketball for the YMCA (4-5 year olds), helping to instill a sense of teamwork and sportsmanship within his players.

In September 2009, Clay was featured in American Nurseryman. Click here to read the article!
